Dear Folks, Peace.
I have great news to share with you from home. Your prayers for my sister Mary have yielded a miracle! Her last scan has shown, she is CANCER FREE! My family and I thank you sincerely for all your prayers! Also, for the next few months, All Souls will host Fr. Anthony Ochoa & his mother while he is between assignments. Fr. Ochoa & his mother will reside at our rectory. If you should see them around or at Mass, please offer them a warm All Souls welcome!

Pax Christi, Fr. Jim

PARISH COUNCIL ELECTION

All Souls Parish Council is a body of parishioners that serve in a consultative role to the pastor for all major decisions in the governance of the parish.

These three parishioners have graciously accepted the nomination to run for Parish Council. Thank you to Justine Mottert, Elena Romero & Donna Wolosyk for their willingness to serve the next term.

We also thank outgoing members, Jane Crane and Laura Voegelie for their dedication and hard work.

Please prayerfully consider each candidate and mark your ballot for the TWO (2) parishioners you feel will best serve and represent the parish and work for the good of all.

BALLOTS MUST BE RETURNED BY MON. SEPT. 9th BY NOON

to be counted. Results will be posted in the September 15th bulletin.

PARISH COUNCIL BALLOT

Please vote for two (2) candidates and return by NOON, Monday, Sept. 9th via collection basket or rectory mail slot ~ one ballot per registered adult parishioner please.

<td>I have been a parishioner of All Souls for 18 years. During this time I have served as President of the St. Anne Sodality &amp; have been a member for 12yrs. I currently serve as a Sacristan, Blood Drive Volunteer, and Eucharistic Minister to the homebound. I’ve also volunteered at Mark Twain Manor Nursing Facility for the last 18 yrs. I enjoy painting and spending time with my 5 children and grandchildren.</td>
<td>My husband Mel, and I joined All Souls 20 years when our oldest son started school here. We have 6 children ranging from 25 to 11 years old. My family and I are very active in the parish and volunteer as lectors and servers. I am very interested in serving as your Parish Council member.</td>
<td>My husband Jerry, daughter Cassie and I have lived in Overland for 29 years and have been All Souls parishioners for just about as long. I am a member of the choir and Festival volunteer. I work full time, am a member of the K of C Ladies Auxiliary and enjoy pitching horse shoes, spend time with my husband, daughter, family and friends.</td>

YOUR ENVELOPE FOR CATHOLIC EDUCATION SUPPORT

August is Back to School month. It is also Adopt-A-Student Fund month at All Souls Church. Collection sets this month, include an Adopt-A-Student envelope that can be used to offer financial support to families enrolled in Catholic education for the upcoming year, either at a Catholic School or in the PSR program.

This year six of our parish students will be attending Holy Spirit School in Maryland Heights. Many more (total not yet available) will be attending Monday evening PSR classes at Holy Trinity Parish.

Through donations to the Adopt-A-Student Fund, financial assistance can be in place as a safety net for families who may experience a hardship during the school year.

Thank you for supporting the Catholic education of our youngsters with any donation you may be able to give.
